Conquering the Fashion, Design and Real Estate Worlds! Meet, Nathalie Dahhan!
Let's see what she is all about!

MIHM-Tell us a little bit about you, where are you from and what inspired you to pursue a career in the Fashion, Design and Real Estate worlds?

ND-I am from Paris, France, the fashion city. Since I was a little girl, I was obsessed with clothing and fashion; my biggest inspirations were drawn from the Chanel catwalk. Growing up in Paris, surrounded by luxury, haute couture, and high-end jewellery, I was always fascinated by beauty and sparkles. Luxury encapsulates my mind, and in my opinion, is the most beautiful artform there is. As I travelled the world and resided in luxurious hotels, my passion for luxurious interior designing intensified with time. Inevitably directing me to pursue a career in interior designing, as well as real estate investment. For a recent project of mine, I have purchased and designed a villa in Bali, Indonesia. I take inspiration from my surroundings daily. From Paris to Los Angeles, my style continues to evolve and grow.

MIHM-You are former Miss London 1995. Tell us about that experience.

ND-Winning the Miss London pageant in 1995 was an unforgettable experience. Along with the pageant, I worked for the Miss London Charity; I absolutely loved working with and for disabled kids, as we helped raise money for both their health and leisure needs. It was a magical experience, and it truly fulfilled my heart. This charity is one of the many key factors that shaped me into the person I am today; it truly makes you appreciate the blessings we have in our lives and emphasize the idea of never taking anything for granted.

MIHM-You graduated from business mastery and UPW with Tony Robbins. Tell us more.

ND-Tony Robbins' seminar is a life-changing, motivational experience. It instills valuable information, teaching individuals how to succeed in every aspect. The experience was not only awakening, but it was genuinely fun. I was so blessed to have met Tony upon numerous occasions. I have learned a lot from him both in the sense of business and in the realm of spirituality. He does an incredible job teaching how to balance financial success with spirituality and wellness. Although the seminar rooms are freezing cold, Tony instills so much warmth and energy into the atmosphere that you feel right at home. Walking through fire breaks all your fears in life, but once you can overcome that fear, you can do anything in life; there is nothing that can stop you.

MIHM-You are the owner of Duo Magazine a Japanese English Fashion Magazine and interviewed Jimmy Cho and Christian Louboutin. Tell us more.

ND-In 1996, I ventured out into my first business; Duo Magazine. I was the primary investor and business director. It was a fashion magazine that encompassed both English and Japanese cultures. We covered high fashion topics, and we were extremely blessed to interview Jimmy Choo and Christian Louboutin, before they got popular.

MIHM-Tell us about Maison Jolie Designs?

ND-It is an international interior design company that I created in 2017. We specialize in luxurious interior designing for homes. We are well-rounded as we design entire homes, including bathrooms and kitchens.

MIHM-You are the former owner of Coco Queen and Bling 7. What happened to these companies?

ND-Unfortunately, Coco Queen did not make it through the COVID-19 pandemic due to the financial hardships the pandemic brought about. We had the best rotisserie chicken in town, which is why it is unfortunate that it did not remain open. Although, we are planning to reopen in the near future, so keep your eye out for a new and improved Coco Queen. My former business, Bling7, closed a few years ago; I had A-list clients from Paris Hilton to Kerry Hilson. Trends change and evolve constantly, and not too many people wanted to bling their cars or phones anymore.

MIHM-You are a real estate investor and you started investing in Bali. When did you start and why?

ND-I started investing in real estate in the past few years. I have always loved Bali, Indonesia; it's a very spiritual and Zen place to spend time in. It has also been a great investment as Bali continues to be a hot, tourist attraction.

MIHM-You have been featured in Airbnb magazine as a Super Host. Can you tell us more?

ND-I put my house up on Airbnb when it first started, and shortly thereafter, I became an Airbnb plus listing. My house was also featured in an Airbnb magazine for super hosts. I love Airbnb both as a concept and as a company. It is a great way to make money worldwide; this is how I got into the vacation rental business, actually.

“Success shouldn’t only be viewed in a financial manner. One who is successful embodies balance in every aspect: emotionally, energetically, financially, spiritually, and wholeheartedly.”

MIHM-If you could work with somebody you admire, celebrity, politician, musician, leader or anybody else who would it be and why?

ND-If there is anyone I could work with, I would say it's Oprah. I met her, and she was very pleasant to interact/converse with. Interestingly enough, I am a huge fan of her spiritual show. I had always dreamt of meeting Oprah, and showing her my newly written, unpublished book on spirituality. One evening, a few years ago, I was sitting at the Montage hotel and when I looked to my right, Oprah was right there. I approached her, and she invited me to sit at her table. We talked, laughed, and shared great memories. We exchanged information and she asked me to send her a copy of my book, The Journey. In that moment I felt so incredibly blessed. I also look up to Martha Stewart; as I would love to have my cooking show on day as well. I love her business mentality, and I think she is an inspiration to many women; no matter what age you are, you are never too old. Lastly, I look up to Tony Robbins tremendously. He gives you so much positive energy and motivation, while also instilling great meditative practices.

MIHM-Define what success means to you?

ND-Success shouldn't only be viewed in a financial manner. One who is successful embodies balance in every aspect: emotionally, energetically, financially, spiritually, and wholeheartedly. Love is the center of every true, successful individual.

MIHM-Who have been your biggest mentors in your career?

ND-Tony Robbins
