

Sparkle strategy
"I love chandeliers! I put one in every room. Just like a great handbag helps you look put-together no matter what you're wearing, a chandelier makes any space look polished."

"I knew this was the home for us instantly. The energy was good, and it was a big, open space. We added a pool to make it more like a resort."

Neighborhood
Beverly Hills

Originally from Paris; moved to Los Angeles 18 years ago.

Current job
Interior designer; also CEO of Coco Queen, a French rotisserie.

Design style
Glam meets French country

Perks of the area
"It's a great neighborhood to walk around in and look at the pretty houses.

There are a lot of hills, so it's good exercise."

Go-to spots
"HD Buttercup is this whole big thing for furniture. You can find all kinds of pieces from different designers. Sunnyn Cafe has incredible Lebanese food—fresh salads and delicious dips. And there's a great no-frills spa down the street from our house called Soul to Sole. You can get a really good one-hour massage there for like $30."

Pattern play

"I loved this wallpaper design. It feels more special when you use it in a small way instead of everywhere."

"Sometimes I'll think of a color and just do it. The house is a balance of the whimsical and unexpected with quieter, all-white elements."

Reflection point

"This bedroom is my masterpiece. Behind the mirrored bed is a wall of mirrors, and the headboard is made of Chanel fabric accented with Swarovski crystals. It's quite special."
